DE WOLF HOPPER IN TRIANGLE FEATURE IS AT HIS VERY HEIGHT

"Mr. Goode, the Samaritan" Is Vehicle with Which Famous Actor Entertains Crowds at the Orpheum—Again Today

Mr. Goode, the Samaritan, in the Triangle photoplay feature of that name, which is to be shown again today at the Orpheum theatre, is a benevolent old gentleman, who becomes enmeshed in the toils of the law when he buys a stolen automobile from Foxy Monte, a crook.

While poor Mr. Goode languishes in jail, his family, believing him to be absent on a business trip, Foxy Monte makes himself most agreeable to Mrs. Goode and her charming daughter, Evelina, who promises to become his wife. Goode, not pleased with the state of the jail, and being in great sympathy with the disreputable inmates, has the place refurnished, and at expiration of his sentence invites Shifty Ed, one of the incarcerated crooks, to come and visit him.

Ed comes to make his call in company with his "goil," Shorty Sal, at a time when the Goodes are entertaining a fashionable house party, with Foxy Monte, under an alias, as one of the guests. Sal recognizes Monte; and he, realizing he is in danger of exposure, denounces Ed and Sal as notorious thieves, himself robbing the guests of their jewelry to fasten suspicion upon them. While attention is directed to the two unfortunates, he persuades Evelina, whose hand has been denied him by Mr. Goode, to elope with him.

How Shifty Ed and Shorty Sal turn the tables upon Monte in gratitude to Mr. Goode, leads the film to an exciting finish.

ALICE BRADY APPEARS AT THE ROYAL THEATRE

"La Vie de Boheme" to Be Seen, Today Only, at Main Street Showhouse.

Alice Brady, star of the opera and the stage, who made such wonderful impressions by her strong acting in "The Rack," "The Boss," "As Ye Sow," and, more recently, in "Tangled Fates," is the attraction coming at the Royal theatre today, when a big World Film feature will be shown. The story is based on Henri Murger's famous French book, "La Vie de Boheme," which for several years was the biggest seller in France.

Mimi, a foundling, is taken from the convent to an inn kept by M. Du-cros. There she receives forced attentions from one of the guests, and swift punishment is administered him by Rudolphe Durandin. Rudolphe and his uncle quarrel bitterly, owing to the young man's refusal to marry Madame de Rouvre, a wealthy widow and friend of his uncle. Rudolphe's quarrel is followed by a meeting between the young man and several residents of the Latin Quarter in Paris. In their mode of living he sees his ideal life, and in Mimi his ideal woman.

Rudolphe again meets Mimi, as his neighbor, and falls in love with her. Musette and Marcel, a painter, are separated by a rich young Viscount, for whom Musette deserts Marcel. Musette meets Mimi and introduces her to a rich young man, but Mimi remains loyal to Rudolphe, although he is led to believe otherwise, and, in a rage, leaves her.

Rudolphe's uncle has learned of his infatuation from Mimi, and the uncle writes a letter to Mimi, informing her that she is ruining Rudolphe's chances in life. Mimi, after Rudolphe's desertion, still remains loyal to him, believing that the uncle is the cause.

During the progress of a ball given by Madame de Rouvre, attended by Rudolphe and Marcel, Mimi, weary and hungry, accidentally finds herself in front of Madame de Rouvre's home. She is discovered by Schaunard, and encounters Madame de Rouvre, who tells the girl she will ruin the position of Rudolphe. Mimi runs away, determined to end it all, but before she can do so, she is taken to a hospital.

Before she has recovered, Mimi recalls what she heard at Madame de Rouvre's, and now that Rudolphe still loves her. Feeling that life will not be long for her, she makes her way to the old home where she had been so very happy with Rudolphe. Musette, returning to Marcel, finds Mimi and brings the four men to see her. Combined, they have not sufficient money to buy her the necessary medicine, so each determines to raise the money himself. They also try to please Mimi with a muf for which she has always yearned, to keep her hands warm.

"OBEY" MAY BE STRICKEN FROM EPISCOPAL MARRIAGE.

(By Review Leased Wire.)
ST. LOUIS, Oct. 16.—Elimination of the word "obey" in the promise of the woman in the marriage service was recommended in a minority report of the joint commission on common prayer submitted to the house of bishops of the Protestant Episcopal general convention here today.

The house of deputies referred back to the committee on prayer book all proposed changes in the marriage ceremony, in the catechism and in the institution of clergymen.

These matters cannot come before the general convention again for three years. The minority report recommended that the present injunction beginning "wilt thou obey him and serve him," be changed to "wilt thou love him, comfort him, honor and keep him in sickness and in health; and forsaking all others, keep thee only unto him so long as ye shall live."

EPIDEMIC HITS PRINCETON BUT FOOTBALL GOES ON.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 16.—Joseph Murray, treasurer of the Princeton Athletic Association, in a statement tonight, said that "as far as can be learned," there will be no changes in the schedule of the Princeton football team because of the development of infantile paralysis among the student body.

"The Dartmouth game will be played," the statement said, "and it is almost as certain that Lafayette game will be played as scheduled. Untrue statements to the effect that a quarantine had been placed on the university resulted in many inquiries at the athletic association office asking if there were to be any changes in the schedule.

GUARDSMAN OUTPOINTS REGULAR AT EL PASO.

EL PASO, Oct. 16.—In a ten round bout at Camp Cotton tonight, Corporal Johnny Newton, of the Second Ohio Infantry, welterweight champion of the army, outfought Corporal Simpson of the Thirty-fourth Infantry, regulars. Both men fought a clean fight but the younger man had a shade the best of it all the way through.

Some of the newspaper correspondents attached to the standpoint train in Ohio found Mr. Hughes' voice "very firm," which was in striking contrast with utterances that were just as infirm as ever.
